We accept complaints made verbally as well as written complaints. If you do not feel you can raise a complaint about your NHS service directly to NHS England at england.contactus@nhs.net with 'For the attention of the complaints team' in the subject line.

Helen Kellett is the Complaints Manager. We aim to resolve verbal complaints within 24 hours where possible, but if you complain in writing, the Complaints Manager will send an acknowledgement letter in 3 working days and will aim to provide a full response in writing as soon as practical.

If the Complaints Manager is unavailable, we will take brief details about the complaint and will arrange for a meeting when it is suitable for you and the practice. We will keep comprehensive and confidential records of your complaint, which will be stored securely and only be accessible only by those who need to know about your complaint.

If the complaint investigation takes longer than anticipated the Complaints Manager will contact you at least every 10 working days to keep you informed of the reason for any delays, the progress of the investigation and the proposed date it will be completed.

When the investigation has been completed, you will be informed of its outcome in writing. We will make our response clear, addressing each of your concerns as best we can. You will also be invited to a meeting to discuss the results and any practical solutions that we can offer to you. These solutions could include replacing treatment, refunding fees paid, referring you for specialist treatments or other solutions that meet your needs and resolve the complaint.
